

Senior Management HR Announcement

September 1st, 2016

Baar, Switzerland

Amicus A.G announced today that Marcela Lassakova is joining the Company as Corporate Director for Compliance and Internal Controls, effective September 1st, 2016. This announcement demonstrates the expanding commitment of Amicus to Compliance and takes the company to the next level of rigor as we continue to grow.

Marcela joins Amicus as an accomplished senior executive in finance and compliance areas, with experience spanning 16 years in the Pharmaceutical Industry. During her successful career, Marcela has held increasingly senior finance, internal control and compliance roles on local, regional and continental levels.

Marcela joined BMS Czech Republic in 2001, as Chief Accountant. Two years later, BMS transferred her to the UK to start her international career, leading the BMS Business Control Function for the Central European region. Marcela moved to PharmaSwiss in 2009, where she was a key pillar of the Compliance and Business Control function. Following the acquisition of PharmaSwiss in 2011 by Valeant International, Marcela was appointed to lead Compliance and Internal Controls activities of Valeant Europe and her role was expanded to include also Middle East and Africa.

Amicus' Chairman of the Board and Head Ethics and Compliance Committee, Michael Seeley, welcomed Marcela to Amicus, commenting "Marcela brings to Amicus an extraordinary skill set accumulated over the last decade in major research-based multinationals. I worked with Marcela when she was at Bristol-Myers Squibb and found her to be highly ethical and a consummate professional," Seeley continued. "I am genuinely delighted to welcome Marcela to the Amicus team, and I know that our partners will be as pleased as I am by this further proof of Amicus' commitment to the highest levels of professionalism. Reporting to Marcela will be Jelica Cubric who assumes a new role as Corporate Head of Quality across all Amicus affiliates and Compliance Lead for Serbia, Bosnia, Kosovo, Macedonia and Montenegro. I would like to recognize and thank Jelica for her extraordinary efforts in setting up our Compliance and Ethics platform, our procedural documents and processes that allowed Amicus to realize the Board's founding objective to place Compliance at the front and centre of the Company's operations."

Petr Nemeč, Co-Founder, Shareholder and Board Member added a personal note, saying "I have worked with, and known, Marcela for more than a decade. I am pleased and honoured that she has chosen to join our Amicus community. She will bring rigor, competence and help us to maintain our standards in compliance, ethics and integrity at the highest level. I wish her every success."
